

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FMI Booth # 668

Contact:

Robert J. Haworth
CEO, LSI Consulting
314-416-7509
bhaworth@lsi-consulting.com

LSI CONSULTING PRESIDENT TO SPEAK AT FMI'S
57th ANNUAL FINANCIAL EXECUTIVE CONFERENCE

--One Company....A Total Retail Workforce Management Solution--

St. Louis, Missouri (May 1, 2007) Labor Solutions International, Inc. (LSI Consulting), a global leader in retail workforce management consulting and engineering services, announces its President, Kevin Donnelly, will address the FMI Financial Executive Conference at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Savannah, Georgia, on Sunday, May 20, 2007.

LSI Consulting, founded in 1997, was acquired by WorkPlace in 2005 and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of WorkPlace Systems International, plc. Today, LSI is a leading consulting and engineering firm specializing in retail workforce management and recognized as a leader in achieving labor productivity, customer service improvements, and workforce efficiency for our retail clients through our strategic, operational, and tactical consulting services and solutions. LSI Consulting offers its clients a full suite of independent consulting services and web-based workforce management software solutions, focused on improving customer service, store labor productivity, and workforce efficiency.

Food Management Institute's (FMI) 57th Financial Executive Conference, held May 20, 2007 in Savannah, Georgia, is designed to provide over 100 food industry financial executives with knowledge and educational sessions aimed toward gaining a competitive edge in today's food retail industry. Topics to be addressed include shrink control, retail consolidation, automated replenishment, information technology ROI, and retail workforce management. Attendees can expect to benefit by obtaining critical industry information, enhancing corporate strategies, and expanding their professional network.

Kevin Donnelly has over 27 years in the retail industry along with over 9 years experience in workforce management consultancy. Kevin is currently President of LSI Consulting, leading a team specializing in workforce management consulting, operational management consulting, tactical support services, and workforce management solutions for some of the largest retail companies in the United States.

LSI's clients are some of the premier retailers in the U.S. and internationally, and include: The Home Depot, Kroger, Toys "R" Us, The Wet Seal, PETCO, ShopKo, Cabela's, Albertson's, Lowe's Home Improvement Warehouse, Winn-Dixie, Raley's, PETsMART, Shoprite (South Africa), Babies "R" Us, Wickes (UK), and Fred Meyer.

For more information visit: www.lsi-consulting.com